

An Act relating to chambers of commerce; prohibiting dues, fees, assessments or other charges as a prerequisite to or requirement of membership in any chamber of commerce; authorizing persons and businesses to be voting members; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.