

An Act relating to economic development; enacting the Oklahoma Business Entry Survey Testing Act of 2002; providing for study of certain business entry decisions; specifying scope of study; requiring analysis of survey results; requiring final report; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.