

An Act relating to state government and state water; amending 74 O.S. 2001, Section 1221, which relates to the Joint Committee on State-Tribal relations; requiring certain cooperative agreements to be effective only upon the approval of the Oklahoma Legislature; providing process; prohibiting certain state entities from selling or exporting water outside the state without legislative approval; specifying process; requiring certain water plan study; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.