

An Act relating to elections; amending 26 O.S. 2001, Section 12-101, which relates to vacancies in Congress; deleting certain obsolete provisions for special elections; allowing incumbents in certain elective offices to file resignation to become effective on some date certain; authorizing the Governor to call a special election to fill the vacancy; providing that person elected take office on specified date and serve remainder of term; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.