

An Act relating to state employees; authorizing state agencies to establish employee productivity programs; authorizing expenditure of monies for recognition awards; setting expenditure limitations; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.