

An Act relating to agriculture and volunteer fire departments; authorizing volunteer firefighters to obtain workers' compensation insurance from the State Insurance Fund; providing a limit to the premium to be charged; requiring annual reporting of certain information by the State Insurance Fund to certain parties; specifying what information shall not be considered by the State Insurance Fund when determining certain amounts; specifying the amount and time for any proposed premium increase; defining term; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.