

An Act relating to state health insurance; recognizing the need to control state health care benefit costs; recognizing the need for a study and review of certain state health care cost issues; stating intent to study state health care cost issues through an interim study by the Joint Liaison Committee on State and Education Employees Group Insurance Benefits; providing for certain recommendations; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.