

An Act relating to schools and libraries; requiring public schools and public libraries shall have specified conditions relating to computers with Internet access; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.