

An Act relating to poor persons; providing for compensation of pharmacists employed by certain counties; exempting compensation of those pharmacists from certain limitation; providing for bonding; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.