

A Concurrent Resolution urging the President and Congress to fulfill their obligation to provide adequate funding for special education in the public schools; and directing distribution.