

An Act relating to insurance; stating legislative intent; modifying provisions related to application of the act; requiring certain health benefit plans to issue certain cards or other technology containing uniform prescription drug information; providing for certain approval; providing for content; providing for issuance; defining term; providing exceptions; providing for applicability; providing for enforcement of the act's provisions; requiring promulgation of rules; requiring Insurance Commissioner to enforce compliance; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.