

An Act relating to civil procedure; * * * * judgment against the state is stayed on appeal without requirement of bond; * * * * costs, attorney fees, or interest; tolling time limitation to file for certain costs in certain circumstances; * * * * filing of appeals; allowing filing of petition in error through regular mail; * * * * subpoenas; authorizing district court to order special procedures in certain depositions; * * * * defenses and objections; * * * * discovery; adding information that may be required of an expert witness by an interrogatory; * * * * probate procedure; an effective date.