

An Act relating to the Oklahoma Open Meeting Act; amending 25 O.S. 2001, Section 307.1, which relates to teleconferencing; updating obsolete reference; allowing the board of education of a technology center school district to hold meetings by teleconferencing; requiring certain number of members be present in person; requiring public notice to indicate meeting will be conducted via teleconference; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.