

An Act relating to counties and county officers; authorizing the sheriffs to enter into certain contracts to collect outstanding warrants; providing for administration of contract; defining term; providing for payment by certain means; providing for administrative fee; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.