

An Act relating to poor persons; requiring promulgation of rules regarding guaranteed health care services to eligible Medicaid recipients by certain date; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.