

An Act relating to cities and towns; allowing certain municipalities with a municipal criminal court of record to privatize enforcement of certain municipal ordinances; authorizing employees of certain contractors to issue certain citations and to have limited powers of arrest; disallowing prosecutorial or judicial functions by private contractors or employees; defining terms; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.