

An Act relating to state government; providing four and one-half percent (4.5%) increase to certain state employees' annualized salary; providing for noncodification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.