

An Act relating to environment and natural resources; encouraging manufacturers of alternative or innovative private individual on-site sewage disposal technology to do business in this state; providing for streamlined requirements for permitting following certain requirements; stating requirements for certain permits to be deemed acceptable for general use; defining terms; requiring certain affidavit; stating requirements for affidavit; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.