

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; making tampering with or disabling security or surveillance cameras for certain purposes unlawful; providing penalties; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.