

An Act relating to the Oklahoma Open Records Act; requiring public bodies to keep records related to certain industries confidential; authorizing release of certain records to law enforcement and other agencies upon certain findings; protecting certain records from discovery in court actions; authorizing discovery of certain records upon certain findings; requiring certain records to be maintained in sealed file; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.