

An Act relating to public health and safety; creating the Certification Review Board for Assisted Living Facility Administrators; providing for composition, method of appointment of members, terms, vacancies, convening of the first meeting, quorum, travel reimbursement and method of conducting business; defining term; specifying amount of time an administrator must devote to on-the-job supervision; providing for promulgation of rules; providing for duties of the Board; providing for issuance of licenses; specifying qualifications for issuance of a license; requiring submission of certain evidence; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.