

An Act relating to crimes and punishments and occupations; amending 21 O.S. 2001, Section 1092, which relates to embezzled or stolen property in possession of pawnbroker; vesting certain interest in pawned property by pawnbroker under certain circumstance; specifying certain interest does not supersede interest of bona fide owner; authorizing certain hold until owner is known; amending 59 O.S. 2001, Section 1508, which relates to investigations of pawnbroker transactions; making language gender neutral; updating reference; deleting authority to vest certain title in pawnbroker; deleting language; deleting notification of criminal case; deleting hold order for certain evidence; providing process to return property to bona fide owner; providing for evidence to be photographed and property returned to owner; construing right to restitution; providing for replevin action of certain property; vesting certain interest in property subject to replevin action; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.