

An Act relating to poor persons; requiring promulgation of rules to establish a competitive bid process for eligibility determination; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.