

An Act relating to schools; requiring the State Department of Education to require certain health and physical education instruction in schools; requiring limits on access to and availability of certain vending machines in certain schools; requiring the State Board of Education to promulgate rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.