

An Act relating to state employees; requiring the Administrator of the Office of Personnel Management to conduct a salary study concerning state agency directors; providing purpose and content of study; requiring report and distribution of report; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.