

An Act relating to the Insurance Department; providing for duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations; and declaring an emergency.