

An Act relating to the Department of Commerce; making appropriations to the Department; stating purposes; exempting expenditure of funds from certain restrictions; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.