

An Act relating to state government; defining terms; authorizing certain state entities charge a convenience fee for electronic/on-line transactions; requiring certain records be kept; allowing for adjustment of the convenience fee; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.