

An Act relating to civil actions; creating the Volunteer Professional Services Immunity Act and providing short title; providing for immunity from liability for certain volunteer professionals under certain circumstances; defining term; limiting applicability of immunity under certain circumstances; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.