

An Act relating to insurance; requiring health benefit plans to offer coverage for colorectal cancer examinations to certain individuals; making coverage subject to certain provisions; providing for minimizing of costs and specifying rate of payment; defining term; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.