

An Act relating to schools; requiring expenditure of funds for professional development in certain subject areas in certain districts; requiring approval of certain professional development programs and courses by the State Department of Education prior to expenditure of certain funds; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.