

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; prohibiting state officers from being involved in certain employment situations; providing penalty; defining terms; prohibiting certain elected officials from entering into state employment; providing prohibition period; providing exemption; providing penalty; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.