

An Act relating to criminal procedure; creating the Reintegration Support Act; providing short title; stating legislative findings and intent; authorizing the Administrative Office of the Courts to designate one or more district courts to implement a pilot reentry court program; making pilot program subject to availability of funds; directing establishment of certain rules for certain purpose; providing eligibility and procedural requirements by rule; defining term; providing reentry in addition to parole supervision; construing eligibility; reserving certain right of refusal for admission; limiting total number of persons in certain pilot program; stating duration of certain program; providing exception by rule; requiring payment of certain costs and fees; requiring employment for participation; allowing temporary suspension of cost and fees upon certain condition; making cost and fees an obligation to the court; making certain obligation payable after term of sentence; limiting period to accrue cost and fees; providing method of collecting cost and fees; providing penalty for failure to pay certain cost and fees; allowing court clerk to retain certain percentage of cost and fees collected by rule; requiring certain notification to certain agencies; allowing certain unscheduled visits by rule; authorizing victim participation by certain methods; providing for disciplinary sanctions; making act of absconding a crime; construing authority of court to not recognize certain action; recognizing certain behaviors; providing additional penalty for removal from certain program; amending Section 14, Chapter 276, O.S.L. 1993, as last amended by Section 3, Chapter 170, O.S.L. 1999 (57 O.S. Supp. 2000, Section 612), which relates to assignment, classification and processing of DUI offenders; including other substance offenses with DUI offender's classification authority; requiring evaluation of addiction before assignment to treatment; deleting language; providing for structured supervision or aftercare; allowing recommendation to reentry court for certain offenders; authorizing treatment by public or private provider or hospital; allowing transfer to court jurisdiction by rule upon acceptance to reentry court; providing jurisdiction over offender while sentenced; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.