

An Act relating to motor vehicles; amending 47 O.S. 2001, Section 6-110, which relates to examination of applicants; requiring examination to test applicant's ability to interpret highway signs which are displayed in international symbols; requiring the Department of Public Safety to provide alternative method of testing certain persons; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.