

An Act relating to agriculture; designating the State Department of Agriculture as an official environmental agency for certain types of pollution; authorizing the Department to seek delegation from certain federal agencies to administer certain programs; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.