

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; allowing income tax credits for certain donations to public schools; specifying and limiting amount of credits; allowing credits to be carried forward for certain period; specifying amount of credit that may be claimed by spouses filing separately or with respect to property with title held by more than one individual; specifying certain duties of Oklahoma Tax Commission; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.