

A Concurrent Resolution authorizing the Department of Corrections to contract with a public trust or private prison contractor for a female prison facility; authorizing various methods of contracting; allowing provisions in certain contract for purchase of prison facility after a predetermined number of years; requiring certain approval for certain contract; and directing distribution.