Section 8C. A. Despite any provision to the contrary, beginning January 1, 1997, the fair cash value, as determined by law, on each homestead of an individual head of household whose gross household income from all sources for the preceding calendar year did not exceed Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), and which individual head of household is sixty-five (65) years of age or older, shall not exceed the fair cash value placed upon the property during the first year in which the individual head of household was sixty-five (65) years of age or older and had gross household income from all sources of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) or less. Subject to the limitations of this section, the fair cash value shall not exceed such amount as long as the individual head of household who is sixty-five (65) years of age or older owns and occupies the property and as long as the gross household income from all sources does not exceed Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) in any calendar year. If any improvements are made to the property, the fair cash value of the improvements shall be assessed in accordance with law by the county assessor and added to the assessed value of the property. If the individual head of household ceases to own and occupy the property or if the gross household income from all sources exceeds Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) in a calendar year, the fair cash value of the property shall be determined as if the provisions of Section 8 of Article X of the Constitution of the State of Oklahoma or any other provisions relating to a limitation on the fair cash value of locally assessed real property had been in effect during the time the property was valued pursuant to the provisions of this section. The provisions of this subsection shall continue in force and effect with respect to homesteads owned by the heads of households who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older at any time prior to January 1, 2003. Effective January 1, 2003, the limitations prescribed by this subsection for the maximum amount of gross household income shall cease to have the force and effect of law and the heads of households who qualified for the provisions of this subsection prior to January 1, 2003, shall continue to qualify without regard to the gross household income of such person. Subject to the limitations of this section, the fair cash value shall not exceed such amount as long as the individual head of household who is sixty-eight (68) years of age or older owns and occupies the property. If any improvements are made to the property, the fair cash value of the improvements shall be assessed in accordance with law by the county assessor and added to the assessed value of the property. Once the fair cash value of the improvements has been added to the fair cash value of the property, the total fair cash value shall not exceed the revised valuation of the property so long as the individual head of household who is sixty-eight (68) years of age or older owns and occupies the property. If the individual head of household ceases to own and occupy the property, the fair cash value of the property shall be determined as if the provisions of Section 8 of Article X of the Constitution of the State of Oklahoma or any other provisions relating to a limitation on the fair cash value of locally assessed real property had been in effect during the time the property was valued pursuant to the provisions of this section.

SECTION 4. The Ballot Title for the proposed Constitutional amendment as set forth in SECTION 4 of this resolution shall be in the following form:

BALLOT TITLE

Legislative Referendum No. ____ State Question No. ____

THE GIST OF THE PROPOSITION IS AS FOLLOWS:

This measure would amend the Oklahoma Constitution. It would amend Section 8C of Article 10. Homestead property is a person's residence. Homesteads are subject to property tax. Homesteads have to be valued for property tax purposes. There is a special rule to value some kinds of homesteads. The special rule applies to homesteads owned by people who are 65 years of age and older. If you are this age or over and do not have income greater than $25,000 per year, the special rule applies to your homestead. The special rule is that the value of these homesteads does not increase for property tax purposes. There are some exceptions. This measure would change the age requirement. It would change the age requirement for the special rule beginning January 1, 2003. On this date, you would have to be age 68 or over to have the special rule apply. Beginning January 1, 2003, you could still have the special rule apply to your homestead without considering your income.
