"Representative Blackburn, I don't have a copy of the bill in front of me right now but looking through it last night, I believe there was a reference to legislative action or legislative approval of any compacts. What, in your opinion, is the intent of that language?"

Representative Blackburn:

"That was the language that was changed from HB 2895, and in effect, it requires full legislative approval of both houses before any action can be taken."

Representative Clay Pope:

"So then you're saying that you believe the intent of this bill is that we have a full vote of both the House and the Senate, and that it is your intent as the author of this bill that that be what happens before we have any compacts."

Representative Blackburn:

"Thank you, Representative Pope. Yes, that it would not be the action of a single committee or a concurrent resolution with intent only, but that it would be full legislative action of law by two houses."

WHEREAS, as well as being a successful Representative of the people in the State Legislature, Jim Glover, the devoted husband for 36 years to his wife, Linda, and the loving father to his children, Tim Len, James Bruce and Jennifer Rae, and grandchildren, Travis and Gailen, is recognized by his friends and colleagues as a dedicated and caring family man; and

WHEREAS, members, staff and observers of the legislative process will greatly miss the booming auctioneer voice of Representative Jim Glover who leaves his legacy in his unmatched ability to rule with a firm hand and gavel when presiding in the Speaker’s chair
