

Prohibiting children seventeen years or younger who are still attending school from certain employment conditions; emergency.