

Corporation Commission; changing average well production requirements for certain common source of supply; making certain field rules unenforceable in certain circumstances; effective date; emergency.