

State government and state water; requiring certain cooperative agreements to be effective only upon the approval of Oklahoma Legislature; prohibiting certain state entities from selling or exporting water outside state without legislative approval; codification; emergency.