

Concurrent resolution memorializing Congress and President to maintain their commitment to America's military retirees by providing certain health care for certain retirees; distribution.