An Act relating to state government; amending 74 O.S. 2001, Section 1370, as amended by Section 5, Chapter 453, O.S.L. 2003 (74 O.S. Supp. 2003, Section 1370), which relates to flexible benefit allowance; modifying provisions related to purchase of benefits by certain persons; providing for applicability of flexible benefit allowance amount based upon certain election; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 74 O.S. 2001, Section 1370, as amended by Section 5, Chapter 453, O.S.L. 2003 (74 O.S. Supp. 2003, Section 1370), is amended to read as follows:

Section 1370. A. Subject to the requirement that a participant must elect the default benefits, the basic plan, or is a person who has retired from a branch of the United States military and has been provided with health care through a federal plan and provides proof of this coverage and opts to ~~not choose any~~ purchase one or more benefits, flexible benefit dollars may be used to purchase any of the benefits offered by the Oklahoma State Employees Benefits Council under the flexible benefits plan. A participant who has provided proof of other coverage as described in this subsection shall not receive flexible benefit dollars if the person elects not to purchase any benefits. A participant's flexible benefit dollars for a plan year shall consist of the sum of (1) flexible benefit allowance credited to a participant by the participating employer, and (2) pay conversion dollars elected by a participant.

B. Each participant shall be credited annually with a specified amount as a flexible benefit allowance which shall be available for the purchase of benefits. The amount of the flexible benefit allowance credited to each participant shall be communicated to him or her prior to the enrollment period for each plan year.

C. For the plan year ending December 31, 2001, and each plan year thereafter, the amount of a participant's benefit allowance, which shall be the total amount the employer contributes for the payment of insurance premiums or other benefits, shall be:

1. The greater of Two Hundred Sixty-two Dollars and nineteen cents ($262.19) per month or an amount equal to the sum of the average monthly premiums of all high option health insurance plans, the average monthly premiums of the dental plans, the monthly premium of the disability plan, and the monthly premium of the basic life insurance plan offered to state employees or the amount determined by the Council based on a formula for determining a participant's benefit credits consistent with the requirements of 26 U.S.C., Section 125(g)(2) and regulations thereunder; or

2. One-half (1/2) of the amount of the flexible benefit allowance amount specified in paragraph 1 of this subsection for any participant who has retired from a branch of the United States military, but who has opted not to purchase health care coverage; or

3. The greater of Two Hundred Twenty-four Dollars and sixty-nine cents ($224.69) per month or an amount equal to the sum of the average monthly premiums of all high option health insurance plans, the average monthly premiums of the dental plans, the monthly premium of the disability plan, and the monthly premium of the basic life insurance plan offered to state employees plus one of the additional amounts as follows for participants who elect to include one or more dependents:

- a. for a spouse, seventy-five percent (75%) of the average price of all high option benefit plans available for coverage of a spouse,
- b. for one child, seventy-five percent (75%) of the average price of all high option benefit plans available for coverage of one child,
- c. for two or more children, seventy-five percent (75%) of the average price of all high option benefit plans available for coverage of two or more children,
- d. for a spouse and one child, seventy-five percent (75%) of the average price of all high option benefit plans available for coverage of a spouse and one child, or
- e. for a spouse and two or more children, seventy-five percent (75%) of the average price of all high option benefit plans available for coverage of a spouse and two or more children.

D. This section shall not prohibit payments for supplemental health insurance coverage made pursuant to Section 1314.4 of this title or payments for the cost of providing health insurance coverage for dependents of employees of the Grand River Dam Authority.

E. If a participant desires to buy benefits whose sum total of benefit prices is in excess of his or her flexible benefit allowance, the participant may elect to use pay conversion dollars to purchase such excess benefits. Pay conversion dollars may be elected through a salary reduction agreement made pursuant to the election procedures of Section 1371 of this title. The elected amount shall be deducted from the participant's compensation in equal amounts each pay period over the plan year. On termination of employment during a plan year, a participant shall have no obligation to pay the participating employer any pay conversion dollars allocated to the portion of the plan year after the participant's termination of employment.

F. If a participant elects benefits whose sum total of benefit prices is less than his or her flexible benefit allowance, he or she shall receive any excess flexible benefit allowance as taxable compensation. Such taxable compensation will be paid in substantially equal amounts each pay period over the plan year. On termination during a plan year, a participant shall have no right to receive any such taxable cash compensation allocated to the portion of the plan year after the participant's termination. Nothing herein shall affect a participant's obligation to elect the minimum benefits or to accept the default benefits of the plan with corresponding reduction in the sum of his or her flexible benefit allowance equal to the sum total benefit price of such minimum benefits or default benefits.

SECTION 2. This act shall become effective October 1, 2004.
