A Concurrent Resolution honoring Cassie John Jackson on her outstanding achievements and wishing her future success; and directing distribution.

WHEREAS, Cassie John Jackson graduated from Sulphur High School in 1997 and soon attended Oklahoma State University with aspirations of earning an engineering degree that would allow her to work for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA); and

WHEREAS, Cassie John Jackson, as a participant in the College of Engineering, Architecture and Technology's Co-Operative Engineering Education program, served three terms at Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center; and

WHEREAS, Cassie John Jackson received NASA Johnson Co-op Flag awards recognizing her outstanding achievements as a top intern during her Co-op assignments in 2000 and 2001; and

WHEREAS, Cassie John Jackson was most recently awarded a NASA Johnson Co-op Special Achievement award which is presented to the top 10 interns employed at the space center. The award recognized her for "outstanding support in the area of pyrotechnics testing, exceptional thoroughness and technical insight, superb job interfacing with all members of the organization and exemplary work ethic, technical competence and maturity;" and

WHEREAS, Cassie John Jackson graduated from Oklahoma State University in December of 2003 and immediately began her employment with NASA working in Center Operations; and

WHEREAS, Cassie John Jackson is using her expertise and education that she attained at Oklahoma State University to develop fuel cell technology that will enable a manned mission to Mars; and

WHEREAS, Cassie John Jackson has been an excellent ambassador not only for Oklahoma State University but also for all Oklahomans. Her achievements are a testament that hard work, dedication and perseverance allow dreams to become reality.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 2ND SESSION OF THE 49TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE, THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN:

THAT the Oklahoma Legislature wishes to honor Cassie John Jackson on her extraordinary achievements in her chosen profession.

THAT the Oklahoma Legislature wishes Cassie John Jackson great success, health and happiness in all her future endeavors.

THAT a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Cassie John Jackson.

Adopted by the House of Representatives the 6th day of April,
