A Resolution commending the Rock Creek High School Academic Team upon winning the 2004 State Class A Academic Team Championship; congratulating them for two consecutive victories; recognizing individual team members; and directing distribution.

WHEREAS, on February 7, 2004, the State Class A Academic Bowl Championship was held at Redlands Community College. Rock Creek High School Academic Team defeated teams from Morrison, Fletcher, and Canton to win the 2004 Class A Academic Team Championship. The Rock Creek High School Academic Team also won the area, regional, district, and conference championships in 2004; and

WHEREAS, this is the second consecutive Academic Championship for the Rock Creek High School Academic Team, who also won the 2003 Class A Academic Championship, thus starting a trend and building a legacy for Rock Creek High School; and

WHEREAS, individual members of the 2004 Rock Creek Academic Team were selected by the Oklahoma Academic Association, selected to the OACA All-State Team, or played on the high school's state championship softball team.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE 2ND SESSION OF THE 49TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate commends the Rock Creek High School Academic Team for winning the 2004 State Class A Academic Team Championship, as well as the area, regional, district and conference championship.

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate congratulates the Rock Creek High School Academic Team for winning two consecutive Class A Academic Team Championships and encourages the team to continue the tradition of academic excellence.

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate recognizes individual Rock Creek High School Academic Team members who excelled in the competition or participated in other championship athletic events.

THAT a copy of this resolution be distributed to Rock Creek High School Academic Team Head Coach Marla St. John and Assistant Coach Melany Boone.

Adopted by the Senate the 24th day of May, 2004.

Presiding Officer of the Senate
