A Resolution commending the Coalgate High School Girls Track team upon winning the 2004 State Class 2A State Championship; congratulating the Lady Cats for winning their first state championship although the school has no track facilities; and directing distribution.

WHEREAS, the Lady Cats from Coalgate High School, cheered on by coaches and fans, won the State Class 2A Track Championship at Mustang, Oklahoma, outdistancing their nearest opponent by more than 40 points and breaking many records in the process; and

WHEREAS, the purple-and-white Coalgate High School Lady Cats' Girls Track team, hailing from a school with no track facilities, won its first State Class 2A Track Championship.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE 2ND SESSION OF THE 49TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate commends the Coalgate High School Girls Track team upon winning the 2004 State Class 2A Track Championship.

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate congratulates the Coalgate High School Lady Cats' Girls Track team for winning its first State Class 2A Track Championship despite the fact that the team accomplished this feat at a school having no track facilities.

THAT a copy of this resolution be distributed to Coalgate High School Superintendent Joe McCulley, Principal Jim Faubion, Athletic Director Neil Birchfield, and Girls Track Coach Sherry McCulley.

Adopted by the Senate the 24th day of May, 2004.
