

An Act relating to schools; prohibiting schools from employing certain teachers; requiring middle level certification or endorsement for certain English, science and social studies teachers; providing procedure; providing for middle level endorsement for certain teachers in grade six; providing for teaching assignment at grade nine; setting specifications for certain professional development; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.