

An Act relating to counties and county officers; authorizing counties to set curfews by resolution; providing notice; providing for assistance; providing for posting signs; providing for reimbursement of certain costs; providing penalty; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.