

An Act relating to public health and safety; expanding the duties of the Oklahoma Health Care Authority; directing the establishment of a prescription drug benefit program for certain low-income senior citizens; providing definition; establishing certain requirements for the program; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.